Hey Ex-Yu rock lovers!

As music fans around BiH enjoy the ongoing five-city tour of Vlatko Stefanovski, the Ex-Yu rock project is moving forward.

A meeting with Davor Sučić both confirmed his support for the project and secured a letter of support from the association of music composers AMUS (Asocijacija kompozitora-muzičkih stvaralaca). We see this as key in moving the project forward and collecting artifacts and musician support. And a long talk with Zenit Đozić was both motivational and entertaining, as he immediately saw the value of the project and is ready to be on the team, to help in both outreach to artists and the public, but also on ways to engage young people – the next generation of rockers – in the vision. And another great visit in Belgrade with Petar Janjatović provided a chance to confirm his current role in preparing the exhibit narrative and displays, while also getting us out to listen to some of the great young bands that are emerging and evolving. Discussing the project with the legendary Ivan Fece “Firči” (Luna, EKV, Laboratorija Zvuka and others) was also fun and inspiring.

We’ve confirmed UNESCO’s endorsement of the project, and will be working with them more to strengthen a relationship that will help the group to network with their global resources and also bring future visitors our way. The Center for the Promotion of Civil Society (CPCD) is on board to help us to navigate the labyrinth of grant options and civil society resources out there. And we are putting together a plan for rev up our corporate sponsor outreach.

We also want to involve YOU – the fans – in this initiative. We’ve opened our membership fan club drive on our web site (under construction) and want to invite you to be a part of it. Information on 4 membership options – and the perks you will get with each – is available at:

<http://ex-yurock.com/membership/>

Right now fees can be paid through bank transfer (the info is on the web site), but we’re looking to get other options available soon to make it easier to reach out to people outside of BiH and the region. Stay tuned!

In addition to joining the fan club, we want to hear about artifacts YOU have – at home, in a box under the bed, in your grandmother’s basement..... did you hold on to old posters, ticket stubs or t-shirts? Do you have photos or even old film of some concerts or performances? Let us know! We’ve got a variety of loan and donation options available that will ensure your contributions are presented and acknowledge your cultural interests. Email us at info@ex-yurock.com and we can figure out the best way to integrate your stuff into the story of Ex-Yu Rock.

So – tune in, become a fan, share this with your friends, and rock on!

Hej Ex-Yu Rock Fanovi!

Dok ljubitelji muzike širom BiH uživaju u turneji Vlatka Stefanovskog u pet gradova, Ex-Yu rock projekat ide naprijed.

Sastanak sa Davorom Sučićem potvrdio je kako njegovu podršku projektu, tako i podršku Udruženja muzičkih kompozitora AMUS (Asocijacija kompozitora-muzičkih stvaralaca), a sve je popraćeno pismom podrške. Na ovaj način projekat ide naprijed, lakše se prikupljaju artefakti i dobija podrška muzičara. Razgovor sa Zenitom Đozićem bio je i motivirajući i zabavan, jer je odmah uvidio vrijednost projekta. Spreman je biti u timu, pomoći u komunikaciji prema umjetnicima i javnosti, angažovanju mladih ljudi – sljedećoj generacija rokera. Sa Petrom Janjatovićem smo se družili u Beogradu gdje nam je pokazao material izložbenog narativa na kojem radi. Također, odveo nas je na svirke odličnih mladih bendova koji sviraju autorsku muziku. Razgovarati o projektu sa legendarnim Ivanom Feceom „Firčijem“ (Luna, EKV, Laboratorija Zvuka i drugi), čovjekom sa nemjerljivim Rock'n'Roll iskustvom, bila je velika čast i inspiracija za nas.

UNESCO je potvrdio podršku projektu! U budućnosti ćemo sve više raditi sa Organizacijom, jačat ćemo odnose koji će nam pomoći u umrežavanju sa globalnim partnerima i resursima. Centar za promociju civilnog društva (CPCD) je tu da nam pomogne da se snađemo kroz lavirint opcija grantova i resursa civilnog društva. Svakako, radimo i na planu naše bolje vidljivosti kod korporativnih sponzora.

Također, želimo VAS - Fanove – uključiti u ovu inicijativu. Otvorili smo naš fan klub za članstvo na našoj web stranici (u izradi) i želimo vas pozvati da budete dio priče. Informacije o četiri opcije članstva i pogodnostima koje ćete dobiti, dostupne su na:

<http://ex-yurock.com/membership/>

Trenutno se članarine mogu platiti bankovnim transferom (informacije se nalaze na web stranici), ali želimo da uskoro dobijemo druge opcije kako bismo lakše došli do ljudi izvan BiH i regiona.

Želimo čuti o artefaktima i potencijalnim muzejskim eksponatima koje VI imate: kod kuće, u šupi, u kutiji ispod kreveta, u podrumu vaših rođaka... da li ste skupljali i sačuvali stare postere, karte ili majice? Imate li fotografije ili čak stari film sa nekih koncerata ili nastupa? Javite nam! Dostupne su nam različite opcije zajma i donacija koje će osigurati da vaš doprinos bude predstavljen. Svakako, želimo da vaš interes za kulturu dobije priznanje. Pošaljite nam e-poštu na info@ex-yurock.com i možemo smisliti najbolji način da integrišete vaše stvari u priču o Ex-Yu Rocku.

Uključite se, postanite fan i živio Rock'n'Roll
